

Mr. Crane Bergdahl

Arbitrator, Mediator

Expertise Areas:

- Personal Injury
- Torts
- Commercial
- Agriculture
- Contracts
- UM/UIM Arbitration

WAMS Mediator Certification: 1994

Accomplishments: Crane Bergdahl maintains a solo law practice in Pasco, Washington, where he focuses on general civil and business litigation, arbitration and mediation. Mr. Bergdahl has served as legal counsel for various commercial farming operations in Central Washington, advising on contract matters, insurance claims, employment issues and commercial transactions. As a litigator, he has represented both plaintiffs and defendants involved in personal injury claims, business disputes and agriculture matters.

Mr. Bergdahl serves as an arbitrator in contractual, mandatory, single and three member panel arbitrations. As a mediator and arbitrator for Washington Arbitration & Mediation Service, he has helped resolve a wide range of cases involving business disputes, personal injury, contract claims and property damage.

Education: USA&M Mediator Training, 1994; Gonzaga University School of Law, JD, 1969; Gonzaga University, BA, 1967.

Affiliations: Washington Arbitration & Mediation Service; Washington State Bar Association; Benton-Franklin County Bar Association; Washington State Trial Lawyers Association; American Arbitration Association; Washington State Hospital Attorney's Association; Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital, Board of Directors (1978-84).